NO MORE DRESS DOWN FRIDAY!

Dear Parents:

Due to consistent difficulty with the dress-code, we have decided to cancel Dress-Down Days until further notice, effective immediately.

Any special jeans passes will be honored and Seniors will continue their Senior privilege of wearing jeans on Tuesdays.

It is not beneficial to students to miss classes or to be sent home because of unacceptable jeans. Anything that does not glorify God is not worth doing. I am confident that you understand.

discuss Christian Education and life at CCA.

Mighty Through God

"The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ." 2 Corinthians 10:4-5

K-5 Christmas Concert

Friday, December 9 at 7 pm

The K-5 Christmas concert including the musical "Christmas in Reverse" will be performed on Friday, December 9, at 7:00 pm. DOORS WILL OPEN AT 6:25 pm.

Each family may reserve up to 3 tickets, for this assigned-seating concert. Please call Gina Miller at 634-4821 ext. 400, to reserve tickets by Nov. 28. There is a seating chart on CCA's website for your reference at the following link: Upcoming Events K-5 Christmas Concert – More Information – Seating Chart. It is recommended that that you call as soon as possible to increase the likelihood of receiving the seating assignment you prefer. If you would like to be placed on a waiting list for additional tickets for Friday evening, please call Mrs. Miller as soon as possible (please do not call Mrs. Miller at home regarding concert tickets). You will be notified by Friday, December 2, as to whether or not we are able to fulfill your request. Parents, please stop by the Center for Science and Art, between 8:00 am and 3:00 pm, to pick up your reserved-seating tickets starting December 5. Tickets will not be sent home with your child.

A limited number of seats are available in the balcony if grandparents would like to attend the Concert Chapel Dress Rehearsal on Dec. 5 from 8:35 am – 10:12 am. Please call Gina Miller at 634-4821 ext. 400 if you would like to reserve balcony seating tickets. Please remember that all of the kinks are still being worked out at the dress rehearsal.

The students are to wear the following at both the dress rehearsal during school on Tuesday, December 5, and on Friday evening:

- | | | |
|--------------------------|--|--|
| Boys and girls: | | |
| Kindergarten & 1st Grade | | White dress-code polo shirt |
| 2nd Grade | | Red dress-code polo shirt |
| 3rd Grade | | White dress-code polo shirt |
| 4th Grade | | Green dress-code polo shirt |
| 5th Grade | | Red dress-code polo shirt
(including cast members) |
| Boys and girls: K-5 | | Khaki dress-code pants and comfortable, dress-code shoes |

On December 9, all K-5 students are to report to their classroom teacher no later than 6:30 pm. Cast members will then go to Mrs. Kivett's room at 6:30 pm. Third graders are to make sure to bring their recorders. String and band students should sign in with their teachers at 6:30 p.m. String students should then report directly to Miss Hord in room 109 and Band students should then report directly to Mrs. Shipley in room 116. At the close of the program, the students will be waiting for you in their respective classrooms. At that time, you may congratulate them and sign them out for the evening. Children will be released to their parents and to no one else.

We greatly appreciate all the hard work the students have done to prepare for the concert. A special thanks also goes to the teachers who have been a big help with musical rehearsals and encouraged their students.

Mrs. Beth Kivett

Miss Amber Hord

Mrs. Melody Shipley

Give thanks. Give meals.
Give hope
this Thanksgiving.

TURKEY MONDAY-NOV. 21

We were made aware of the City Missions need for frozen turkeys. To date, a number of turkeys have been collected, but the Mission is still short in meeting its 2,000 goal for this holiday season. Therefore, we have extended our food drive through Monday, Nov. 21. You may bring frozen turkeys directly to the school kitchen. Also, non-perishable items are still welcome, especially those for a traditional Thanksgiving meal (boxed potatoes, yams, stuffing, cranberry sauce, gravy, etc.)

"We desperately need the community's generosity and support for no one should go hungry this holiday season," said Aubrey Calhoun, director of public relations-development at Buffalo City Mission.

"With over 64.9% of homeless families experiencing homelessness for the first time, our services are needed more than ever due to families struggling to make ends meet."

Innisbrook Delivery

On Tuesday, November 22, Innisbrook will be delivering our order. We are looking for volunteers to help from 2:00-3:30 pm. Please Email Beth Walsh at pebbles8611@mac.com or call 634-8611.

IMPORTANT REMINDER...

No students are allowed anywhere on the campus after 3:30 pm without adult supervision.

17th Annual CornuCopiA Auction

Saturday, March 24, 2012

"It's A Wonderful Life" Jeremiah 29:11

Only two weeks left to turn in your monetary auction donations! Remember class participation is essential! Classes who have a 95% or greater participation will be awarded with a Cider and Donut Party!

Reminder: You have received one donation request per family. Please use the single Monetary Donation Form (duplicate provided below) for all of the CCA children in your family. Please list all of the CCA children on the form and the Auction office will give credit for participation to each child. Think about what you can give for each class, include your donation for all of your children, and the Auction office will continue to shop for desired items to represent our CCA classes. If there are any questions please feel free to contact Lisa Woodard at 634-4821 ext. 122 on Tuesdays and Thursdays during school hours.
