Dear CCA Community,

After a brief but energetic initial hearing, Judge Ogden denied CCA's request for a temporary injunction.

The state submitted nearly ninety new documents, comprising hundreds of pages, just yesterday. The judge is going to take two weeks to review the case in its entirety and will hear arguments and make a final ruling on October 1st at around noon.

CCA's attorney, Mr. Todd Aldinger, did a brilliant job representing our interests. Your prayers today were absolutely felt, and we humbly ask for your continued prayer and support as we move forward, with attention towards this case and giving CCA's students as "normal" a school year as possible, but ultimately towards glorifying God.

Prayerfully,

David Stewart
Board President
